

City of Mississauga
Memorandum

---

Date: March 3, 2022
To: Chair and Members of Heritage Advisory Committee
From: Paul Damaso, Director, Culture Division
Meeting date: April 12, 2022
Subject: 4650 Hurontario Street (Ward 4); 6650 Hurontario Street and Britannia Farm (Ward 5)

This memorandum and attachments are presented for the Heritage Advisory Committee's information.

Section 7.4.1.12 of the Mississauga Official Plan states that: "The proponent of any construction, development, or property alteration that might adversely affect a listed or designated cultural heritage resource or which is proposed adjacent to a cultural heritage resource will be required to submit a Heritage Impact Assessment, prepared to the satisfaction of the City and other appropriate authorities having jurisdiction."

The subject properties are adjacent to the Hurontario Light Rapid Transit line. The infrastructure work is all occurring within the Hurontario Street right-of-way and there will be no impact on the subject properties save for potential vibration impacts, which will be mitigated.
