

Subject: Apparent Contravention Report – Dario Favot

Date: March 10, 2025

To: The City of Mississauga’s Election Campaign Finance Committee

From: Diana Rusnov, Director of Legislative Services and City Clerk

Details related to the apparent contravention

In accordance with section 88.34 of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996 as amended (MEA) the Clerk for the City of Mississauga has conducted a review of all contributions reported on the Financial Statement – Auditor’s Report Candidate – Form 4s (financial statement) submitted by candidates following the 2024 City of Mississauga Municipal By-election.

Through this review, the Clerk has identified an apparent contribution contravention made by Dario Favot. The individual appears to have contravened section 88.9 (1) of the MEA by making two total contributions in the amounts set out below:

Name of contributor	Address provided on financial statement	Date of apparent contribution based on the financial statement	Amount of apparent contribution based on the financial statement
Dario Favot	No – address is unknown	March 12, 2024	$1,200
Dario Favot	Yes – address was provided; see financial statement for details	May 5, 2024	$1,000
Total			$2,200

The contributions appear to have been made to Carolyn Parrish, mayoral candidate in the City of Mississauga’s 2024 By-election. This apparent contravention was identified on the candidate’s financial statement.

The financial statement containing the information above has been provided to the Election Campaign Finances Committee (ECFC) for review. The public can view the financial statements by contacting the Mississauga Elections Office at Election.Office@mississauga.ca or 905-615-3389. In accordance with the MEA, financial statements will be available for viewing until the next term of office begins on November 16, 2026.

In accordance with section 88.34 (8) of the MEA, the ECFC must make a decision within 30 days after receiving this report regarding whether to commence a legal proceeding against the contributor for the apparent contravention. In accordance with section 88.34 (11), the ECFC is required to provide brief written reasons for their decision.
