Benefits of Volunteerism to the City

Civic Participation

Each contribution amounts to massive impact.

For Example;

- Seniors Program Volunteers = Increases social interaction
- Environmental Volunteers = Increases wildlife habitat, biodiversity, clean air, and stewardship
- Recreation Program Volunteers = Develops potential future professionals
- Event Volunteers = Builds the City's capacity to bring an entire city together in celebration

Promoting City Programs

A City-wide Effort

Focus on efficiency, best practices, training, and recognition.

The Volunteer Coordinator and VECOP work to implement a shared vision for volunteerism at the City.

Uplifting Volunteer Engagement

The screenshot shows the City of Mississauga website's 'Jobs and volunteer' page. The browser address bar shows the URL 'mississauga.ca/our-organization/jobs-and-volunteer/volunteer/'. The website header includes the Mississauga logo, a search bar, and navigation menus for 'Services and programs', 'Council', 'Our organization', 'Events and attractions', and 'Projects and strategies'. The breadcrumb trail reads 'Home / Our organization / Jobs and volunteer'. The main heading is 'Volunteer with the City of Mississauga', followed by a paragraph: 'The City of Mississauga offers a wide range of meaningful volunteer opportunities, whether you're a student looking to complete your community service hours or a resident eager to make a positive impact on your community.' Below this is the text 'Explore the sections below to find volunteer opportunities near you.' The section 'Our volunteer opportunities' features three cards: 'Support recreation programs' (with an image of people at a pool), 'Support our museums' (with an image of a museum interior), and 'Support your local library' (with an image of people at a library). A 'Related' sidebar on the right contains links for 'Volunteer portal login', 'Search all volunteer opportunities', and 'Forms and publications'. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the date as 4/6/2026 and the time as 11:35 AM.
